

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1412 - HB 1038

April 25, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Provides that a governmental entity may be named as a third party defendant in comparative fault cases after the statute of limitations has expired, but before the statute of repose expires.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes that the number of such cases in which a governmental entity would be named as a third party defendant is few and that any increase in expenditures to state or local governments would be not significant.
